counties are also submitting letters of support for Larry Drury.

d) PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

Diane announced several training opportunities offered in the coming months: Children's Collaborium, Preschool For All, West Eds. Putting It All Together, and CPIN's, Mathematics for Preschoolers.

e) SUBSIDIZED PROGRAMS

Diane mentioned she is compiling funding contracts for all subsidized programs in the county and will create a Subsidized Programs Funding Grid. The funding grid is a useful tool to identify and track all sources of subsidized child care funding that exists in the county.

f) PRESCHOOL 4 NOW

Carol shared that yesterday COE hosted a live Preschool 4 Now teleconference yesterday. Carol announced that Jan. 14th 3:30-7:00 pm, COE will host a CPIN input session for Pre-K Foundation Vol. 2. The topic will be Children's Health and Physical Development.

V. PUBLIC COMMENT AND COMMUNICATION

a) Nicole Young, shared that Santa Cruz County Human Services

Department is launching a new initiative to enhance our community's ability to find and support lifelong homes and connections for foster care children. Program is called "Roots & Wings." Next meeting is December 16th 3:00 – 5:00 pm at Simpkins Swim Center.

b) Alma Martinez, shared that First 5 Strategic Plan is almost completed, and will be presented to the Commission on December 17th from 1:00-3:00 pm, at Simpkins Swim Center. One key issue of concern being addressed in the plan is childhood obesity. All are welcome to attend this community meeting.

c) Miche Mosher, shared information on the Infant Toddler Consortium, which is focusing their efforts on developing collaborative trainings for providers. Maria Castro, who has been the training/workshop facilitator shared that the meetings have been very successful.

- d) Jean Gallagher-Heil, presented an update on the Cabrillo ECE Department and how the budget cuts have affected the ECE course offerings. This will require the department to cut units. They will try to focus on holding on to core courses to ensure students have what they need to transfer and to graduate. They are trying to preserve every class. Ellen Murtha volunteered any support that may be needed to support the ECE Department. Jean didn't feel at this time a letter was necessary, but possibly at a later date.
- e) Maria Castro, shared that she attended Head Start training that focused on the preschool teacher and their teaching skills. The focus was on improving teachers awareness and sensitivity as it relates to classroom organization, concept development (activities), etc.
- f) Ellen Murtha, shared that Child Care Ventures and Ecology Action Center are trying to bring more "Green" efforts to Santa Cruz Child Care Community. This is a very timely resource and could tie into the County Developer Fee Loan Program. Jerri Winner, announced that Head Start is receiving "free" services from the Ecology Program and are providing instructions on how to grow organic gardens at their sites. She also shared that PG & E will replace all lighting for child care programs.
- g) Tricia Pastor-Cross, added that Live Oak School District is working with a local Architect who is designing a new "Green" building for the Green Acres After School building this coming year. It will be used as a "pilot" site for the community to view a "green building" if they are planning on a new facility.
- h) Linda Kishlansky, shared information about trainings focusing "Ages & Stages" and other screening techniques for infants and toddlers with special needs.

VI. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

Ellen Murtha proposed that the Executive Committee would post minutes from the meetings rather than reiterate the content at the Council meetings unless there is an item that would benefit Council members. Ellen O. suggested that only action items be placed on the consent agenda. If there are other items that need to be reviewed by the Council they should be included in a separate packet. The Executive Committee will conduct a new member orientation in January 2009.

VII. ADJOURNMENT

Ellen Murtha adjourned the meeting right at 4:00 pm

Next meeting: Thursday, January 8, 2009, 3:00-4:00 p.m. Location: Sesnon House, 6500 Soquel Dr. Aptos, CA 95003.
